April 2023

President's Letter

Let's see if we can find out if we are going to have April showers. Let's check the Magic 8 Ball.

Well, that didn't work. So unless we have some of the elusive precipitation the water will be started on or around the 2nd full week of April.

If you know that there may be an issue with any of your sprinklers, please contact Leah at the office.

The board appointed Don Hadley to fill out Mary Staudt's remaining nine months term.

I would like to acknowledge our committees and the work they do. This month because Spring often means "Spring Cleaning" I want to give a big thank you to Our Common Area Gardening Committee and all their members. This committee's effort requires physical work, sweat and dedication.

As an example, here is the Chairperson Roxanne Case cleaning around our entry sign that she and Darrel repainted.

Note April 9th is Easter Sunday. Don't forget your bonnets.

I wish you all a wonderful spring and reminding you to Bloom where you are planted

We want to make this website a useful tool for all our residents.

Rehearsal

Rehearsals are underway for the Second Annual No-Talent Talent Show to be held at the Vicksburg Village Clubhouse on May 6 at 4 PM. We hope you are planning to join us. The show is only an hour in length and includes some wonderful talent, despite the name! We expect a big crowd, so carpooling would be helpful. We are hoping to have a golf cart to help ferry folks up the hill if you park downhill. This year we will be treated to music by some of the members of the Hill Country Youth Orchestra. Donations to the event will benefit the Orchestra which is comprised of Youth of all ages from our Kerrville community. We will also hear songs and acts from the Broadway musical, South Pacific, presented by our own Villagers. Donations in any amount to benefit the Hill Country Youth Orchestra are accepted now and at the door of the event.
